

Society of Architectural Historians, Australia and New Zealand Report of the Editorial Board 2010

Chair: Julie Willis

Board: Deidre Brown, Ursula de Jong, Julia Gatley, Peter Kohane, Andrew Leach, Hannah Lewi, Ian Lochhead, John Macarthur, Naomi Stead, Bill Taylor

July Meeting and actions

1. The Board met at the Newcastle SAHANZ conference on 1 July 2010 (the following members were in attendance: de Jong, Edquist, Kohane, Leach Taylor & Willis)
2. The Board considered its membership and accepted Ian Lochhead's offer to retire after 17 years of service. The Chair nominated Dr Karen Burns, of Monash University, to the Board: this nomination was unanimously accepted.
3. The Board noted a slight anomaly under its Rules in the wording of the circumstances under which the terms of serving Editorial Board members might be extended in special circumstances and recommended the SAHANZ Committee amend the Rules to make this clear (which affirms the recommendation made in the July 2008 Editorial Board report). In seeking clarification of this Rule, the Board recommended the extension of the terms of both John Macarthur and Julie Willis (Chair).
4. The Board has received representation from the current Editors of Fabrications about the difficulties in copy-editing and laying out of each journal issue, particularly in terms of time. The Board resolved to seek further financial support from SAHANZ to alleviate this burden and asked the Editors to propose a budget for such assistance.

Fabrications* report

One remaining volume (19, 2) from 2009 is yet to be published – it is currently awaiting some copyediting. Volume 20, 1 is underway; and papers for 20, 2 will be called for shortly.
