

SAHANZ Honorary membership – nomination – Annual deadline 1 March

The Society of Architectural Historians Australia and New Zealand (SAHANZ) invites nominations, by members of SAHANZ, for Honorary membership. SAHANZ seeks to recognise and honour persons whose achievements demonstrate essential contribution to the field of architectural history in the region of Australia and New Zealand. The awarding of Honorary membership acknowledges distinguished contributions through publications, teaching, supervision and mentorship, or service to relevant societies in the field of architectural history and theory, these achievements serving as criteria for considering awards.

Honorary members receive free membership of SAHANZ for as long as they wish to be associated with the Society, which includes a subscription to Fabrications and public recognition on the SAHANZ website.
